Your President's Message

This message was written on New Year's Day and I wish every member a healthy happy and prosperous 1992.

Please take a moment to remember those members who passed on in 1991. Those I can call to mind immediately are Bob Schultz from the Perry Hall Coin Club and Reds Dorsch from the Baltimore Coin Club. I am sure there are others.

The Maryland State Numismatic Assoication along with the Baltimore Coin Club, has been selected to co-sponsor the 1993 ANA Coin Convention. The late Bill Swagler (who was a member of both) was most active in promoting MSNA as a sponsor for the A N A event and certainly played a large part in it's coming to pass. We will need a lot of help from all of the Numismatists of Maryland; from the Eastern Shore to the mountains of Western Maryland. The 1985 Baltimore A N A was a show by which others have been judged and we want to exceed that high standard. This will require a lot of teamwork from every one of our MSNA members (and maybe a few who are not). As it occurs information on the 1993 Baltimore ANA will appear in The Maryland Numismatist.

I would like to see the MSNA journal expanded to inlcude more numismatic articles in 1992. This can only be done if you send them in.

The most important job we have for this year is the M S N A Annual Convention and Coin Show to be held June 19,20 & 21, 1992, at Festival Hall in Baltimore. We have to focus on our show this year as we have some major competition from other shows on these dates. We barely made money on last year's show so we will have to work extra hard to get dealers for this year's MSNA happening.

I know I can count on the support of all our members. Again; Happy New Year and HAPPY COLLECTING!

The MSNA Board of Directors met at 3:00 p.m. on November 16, 1991 at Emanuel United Methodist Church, 6517 Frederick Rd., Catonsville. In attendance were:

Jack Pryor	- President	Pete Burris	- Past President
Glen Burger	- Vice President	Bill Ayres	- Harford Coin Huskers
Bill Sacks	- Treasurer	Jim Boswell	- Colonial Coin Club
Bryce Doxzon	- Secretary

Due to the calendar conflict of the 1992 MSNA convention against the Memphis International Paper Money Show, moving the show dates to May 21-23, 1992 was discussed, but no action was taken.

To draw in more participating small dealers, the merits and demerits of lowered table fees for low-priced material or Sunday-only dealers were discussed.

The possibility of exhibiting part of the John B. Henry collection at the 1992 MSNA or 1993 ANA convention was briefly mentioned, with the feasibility of the exhibit to be determined later.

Questions arose about the expense of holding future MSNA conventions in Festival Hall, whether or not the hall is dismantled after the 1992 show. Alternate sites discussed were the Pikesville Armory, Timonium Fairgrounds, and the Hunt Valley Inn. Glen Burger said he could look into the logistical details of holding conventions at those sites.

Preliminary talks on a joint MSNA-Baltimore Coin Club project to produce a commemorative medal or pin to honor the 1993 ANA convention were begun. Once produced, members of both organizations would be solicited for purchase of these items as they renew their annual dues.

Glen Burger said he would coordinate with Paul Singleton about CCE contacts with dealers to encourage them to sign up early for convention bourse space.

The next meeting of the board of directors was set for Sunday, December 15, 1991 at 3:00 p.m. at the Towson Quality Inn. The current meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Bryce F. Doxzon

Dedicated to attaining knowledge and fulfillment in Numismatics

The MSNA Board of Directors met at 3:00 p.m. on December 15, 1991 at the Towson Quality Inn, 1015 York Rd. In attendance were:

Jack Pryor - President	Bill Lenz - Baltimore Coin Club
Bryce Doxzon - Secretary	Bill Ayres - Harford Coin Huskers
Bobbie Vaughan - Past President	Jim Boswell - Colonial Coin Club
Pete Burris - Past President

Planning for the 1992 MSNA convention was the focus of the board meeting. Jack Pryor said he would talk with Earl Blaisdell to set in place a contract for table setup at the show; Pete Burris said he would contact Art Decorating Co. to arrange for dealer booth setup (piping & draping).

Show security will include Paul Singleton's people and the Festival Hall security people, but costs will be examined so as to be kept affordable. Insurance will be purchased from the same firm as for the 1991 show (Albert G. Wohlers).

Pete Burris and Bill Sacks will arrange for a block of rooms at the Holiday Inn (and might also use the Days Inn as backup lodging). They will also get the license to permit the annual raffle.

Convention guests will include Ray Dillard and possibly the Washington Plate Printers Union who will also be contacted regarding an appearance at the 1993 convention. Bill Ayres will contact Larry Gentile to ask him to chair the YN program, and Walt Kitner will be asked to repeat as exhibit chairman. Bill Lenz will arrange for speakers for the educational forum and YN breakfast.

Meeting rooms for specialty groups may be set up on the Festival Hall floor at the next convention, but room availability at the Holiday Inn will also be investigated. The speakers' banquet will most likely be held at the Holiday Inn restaurant, and the awards breakfast will be held in the Convention Center if a room is arranged well in advance. A single on-site phone line will be set up for use during the convention.

Convention publicity is underway with beginning-of-year ads placed in Numismatic News and Coin World by Bryce Doxzon.

Denwood Kelly will be contacted for design suggestions for the 1992 convention souvenir sheet, and Millard Hajek will be reached for a convention elongated coin design. A convention flyer will be worked up for duplication by Bob Ruby, who will be contacted to procure the show ribbons.

Greysheet distribution at the show may be dropped due to costs and to possible redundancy.

Host clubs will be solicited early on for volunteers for show setup and registration desk help. Pete Burris and Bill Ayres will work on getting appreciation certificates for those helping with the 1991 convention.

Bryce Doxzon will contact the ANA regarding past president's medals for Pete Burris and Bobbie Vaughan.

The meeting adjourned at 4:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Bryce F. Doxzon
Secretary

Pete Burris and I went to the WCAO radiothon in support of the Johns Hopkins Children's Ecology Fund to make a donation on behalf of the MSNA. Pete got to hug Shirley Howard: I had to settle for Smiley the Clown.

Our Member Clubs Report

THE MARYLAND TOKEN AND MEDAL SOCIETY has an on-going project to place copies of The Maryland Merchant's Tokens in libraries around the state. A member can pay the committee for a copy of the book which is then delivered to the library selected by the committee.

On the 16th of November the group held an intra-club swap meet. For security reasons this meeting was for members only. It was at this meeting that a special event was celebrated: Pete Burris presented a check for $250 to Jack Pryor, President of the MSNA, thus repaying all of the monies advanced for the publication of The Maryland Merchant Tokens book. The book fund is to be continued to pay for future endeavors.

PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY COIN CLUB had as guest speaker of the evening, on 1 October, Joe Howard, who displayed a selection of trees on coins which he supplemented with a slide presentation. At their November meeting Andy Singer spoke on the coinage of James I of England.

BALTIMORE COIN CLUB's Treasurer, Fred Waire, had to resign due to other committments. Andy Rekus volunteered to replace him. BCC's YN, Nathaniel Fick received the Youth Award at the recent M A N A Convention. At their Oct 3rd meeting they hosted a joint BCC, Hanover Numismatic Society, Colonial Coin Club buffet dinner. Program for the evening consisted of a presentation on Collecting Numismatic Literature by Larry Mitchell. At the Baltimore Coin Club show on 24 November displays earned Bryce Doxzon the Best of Show, Arlie Slabaugh First Place and Pete Burris a 2nd Place Award. On 19 December, members & their guests celebrated their annual Christmas get together with a buffet.

On a solemn note: Baldwin (Reds) Dorsch passed away on 24 December 1991. Reds was Charter Member Number 95 of MSNA.

WESTERN MARYLAND COIN CLUB held their fall show on 9 & 10 Nov. While attendance seemed to be down most of their dealers made out O.K. They report a problem has developed with their spring show and it will be held on Apr 11 & 12 instead of 25 & 26.

PERRY HALL COIN CLUB reports the loss of devoted member, Bob Schultz, on 3 October. Bob was the long time president of the club.

The annual Christmas celebration of the Associated Coin Clubs saw members of the three clubs and their families gather again as they have for many years. A fine luncheon, visit by Santa, music by the one man band and flowers for each of the wives & girl friends made this another noteable event. The Association is made up of the Harford Coin Huskers and the Perry Hall and Middle River Coin Clubs.

Coin World

THE NEWS WEEKLY FOR THE ENTIRE NUMISMATIC FIELD

From the Editors of Coin World we have the 1992 GUIDE to U.S. COINS Prices & Value Trends, (Fourth Edition). Co-published by the Amos Press, Inc. and New American Library, a division of Penquin U.S.A. Inc., this 336 page paperback is available at book stores and coin shops for $4.95.

The 1992 guide contains tables which track business strikes and proofs, side by side. The new index is more than double the size of the one in the third edition. The 175 actual-sized photographs of coins provide easy identification; along with the coins history in capsule form, diameter, weight, metallic content, edge, designer & engraver. Pricing information reflects market conditions thru Aug. 1991 at the time of the ANA Convention.

The price guide features coin valuations by denomination, type and date in up to nine grades of preservation. In addition there are sections on coin grading and how it influences the value of coins, the meaning of "third-party grading", computers role in the grading process, error coins, mintages, mysterious rarities and the history of U.S. coinage.

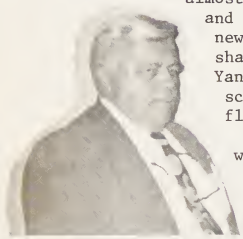
Your President's Message



It's Show Time again and another year is almost gone. This year's M S N A Convention and Coin Show is a long home run from the new ball park at Camden Yards. We will share the area with the Orioles and the Yankees, however all of the games are scheduled for the evening & don't conflict with our coin show.

Parking should not be a problem but we encourage attendees to use mass transit when possible. The new light rail has a Pratt Street stop that is next to Festival Hall.

It's a different ball game this year. We are giving away 25 tickets to the Sunday Night, June 21st, game, as door prizes. Come to the show and get a free chance to see a baseball game.

We will have an outstanding coin show with club meetings, a Young Numismatist Program, an educational program, great exhibits and a prize winning awards breakfast.

A special souvenir card is available as well as the elongateds prepared special for the show.

Please help the hobby, and yourself, with your support and attendance at your MSNA Convention and Coin Show.

We now have samples of the elongateds which will be used to promote the 1993 ANA in Baltimore at the Convention Center. MSNA, along with the Baltimore Coin Club, will be co-sponsoring this event.

Next we must focus on our 1993 MSNA Convention. We would like to find a location which suits us, within the Baltimroe area, where we could put on a show the week prior to the ANA. More details about this convention will follow later.

I would like to close this message by thanking all of the members and officers who have helped make this show, and my presidency, a lot easier.

The MSNA Board of Directors met at 2:00 p.m. on March 15, 1992 at Grace United Methodist Church in Baltimore. In attendance were:

Jack Pryor - President	Pete Burris - Past President
Bill Sacks - Treasurer	Bill Ayres - Harford Coin Huskers
Bryce Doxzon - Secretary	Jim Boswell - Colonial Coin Club

A contract has been signed and a deposit sent for the use of Festival Hall for the 1992 convention. That venue will be explored for the 1993 show dates if the previously proposed expansion and renovation does not occur.

Show table setup will be arranged through Earl Blaisdell and dealer security will be arranged through Art Decorating Co. Security will comprise Paul Singleton's people and a Baltimore City policeman (off-duty). Show insurance has been purchased.

The Radisson Plaza Lord Baltimore hotel will be the convention hotel with the Speakers' banquet likely to be held there. The awards breakfast will be held, if arrangements can be made, in the Convention Center.

Gregory Gentile will preside over the YN program, and Walt Kitner will again be bourse chairman, with exhibit applications to be mailed out no later than May 1. Bill Lenz has not yet gotten replies to his invitations to Ed Rochette and Dave Hendrickson to be educational forum speakers.

Maryland TAMS, Early American Coppers and International Bank Note Society are the groups most likely to have meetings at the convention, though other specialty groups are welcome. Frank and Laurese Katen have expressed interest in holding an auction there, but the city's auctioneer fee and required bond posting cost too much.

The convention souvenir sheet will feature a noneteenth-century Marine Bank of Baltimore note in its design; 100 will be printed. The convention elongated, to be produced on cents and dimes by Ray Dillard, will feature Fort McHenry in its design, drawn by Millard Hajek.

Raffle tickets and committee ribbons should be on hand shortly. The convention flyer will go out once the forum speakers are confirmed.

Convention publicity activity includes ads in three issues of The Numismatist and upcoming ads in the MANA Journal and TAMS Journal.

The nominations committee (past Presidents Vaughan, Burris, Ruby) will compile a 1992 officers ballot to be sent out in late April. The past presidents preferences for job recognition will be solicited.

In discussion about the 1993 MSNA convention, the adea of holding the convention the weekend before the ANA convention was floated, but that proposal, it was decided, required ANA clearance. In addition, Festival Hall has no dates available for booking after June 1993. The Convention Center is totally unavailable to the MSNA show. The Baltimore Arena was discussed as a possible site, but security costs would be much higher than Festival Hall. Because the usual June dates would be too close to the 1993 ANA convention dates, the possibility of having the MSNA show in May was put up for investigation. Jack Pryor, Pete Burris and Bill Sacks will check with several downtown Baltimore hotels for show space and time availability. Bill Ayres opted to check with Linda Dieter of Westex to see what shows are on the July 1992 - June 1993 calendar. Ocean City and Salisbury were briefly mentioned as possible show sites.

Fifteen bourse dealers had signed up as of April 11.

The Katens will hold an auction at BWI Airport during the convention and have a table on the bourse floor for auction lot viewing and bid submission.

A group of rooms at the Radisson Plaza Lord Baltimore has been blocked in for dealers, and room reservation forms have already been sent out.

ANA president Ed Rochette is a confirmed forum speaker; Leon Hendrickson's confirmation may come in a few days. Pete Burris and Bill Ayres will put together the show flyer once the speakers' biographies are available.

Jim Boswell will supervise registration and raffle ticket sales. Member clubs will be targeted to provide show help. The board decided to award silver Eagle bullion coins to those helping out with the 1991 convention.

The nominating committee will make up election ballots soon, but is soliciting a vice presidential nominee to succed Glen Burger.

The board voted to donate a complete year set of MSNA convention souvenir sheets to the Maryland Historical Society.

Festival Hall may have some openings available for a convention to be held in May 1993. Pete Burris will talk with Pam Carrington to confirm those openings. The Timonium fairgrounds and Ocean City were discussed as alternate 1993 convention sites, noting that 25-30,000 square feet of space was needed at any such site. Single weekends in May and June 1993 were available at Ocean City. The Timonium site would be checked costwise, and Paul Singleton would be consulted about the practicality of the alternate sites.

Part of the Festival Hall floor area, near the YN program area, will be set up for the specialty group meetings and the educational forum. The space setup details will be worked out with Pam Carrington. Maryland TAMS, Early American Coppers, and International Bank Note Society are set to have meetings at the convention.

ANA president Ed Rochette and Silver Towne president Leon Hendrickson are confirmed educational forum speakers, and Burnette Anderson will be the awards breakfast speaker. Their photos and biographies are on hand and will be used by Pete Burris and Bill Ayres to compose the convention flyer. The board agreed to purchase Earl Blaisdell's mailing list for use and comparison with the list already on file.

Twenty-seven bourse dealers were signed up as of May 2.

Tickets for the June 19, 20 and 21 Orioles/Yankees game have been purchased. The June 21 game tickets will be door prizes for the attending public; a method for distributing the June 19 and 20 game tickets to dealers has not been decided on yet.

Dealers' rooms at the Radisson Plaza Lord Baltimore hotel will be held until May 18.

Jack Pryor will try to get the speakers' banquet held at the B & O warehouse at Oriole Park; if that site is unavilable the dinner will be held at the Radisson. The hotel will also be the location of the awards breakfast if the Convention Center proves to be unavailable.

Publicity activity has included ads in Coin World, Numismatic News and the upcoming MANA Journal and will focus on local advertising and public service announcements as the convention approaches.

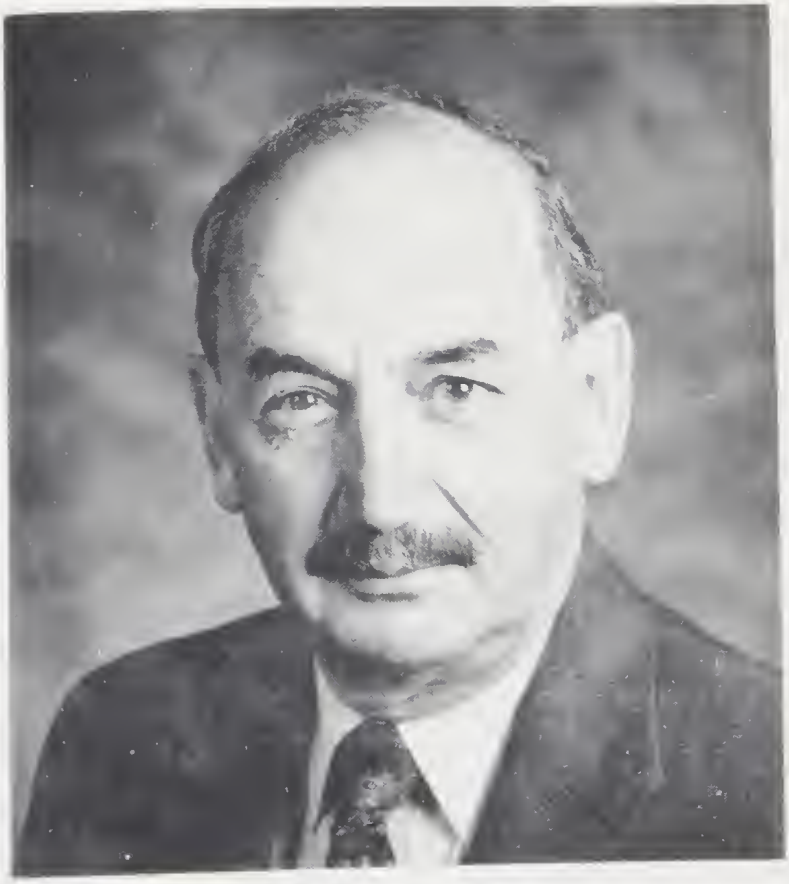
FORUM



EDWARD C. ROCHETTE is currently the president of the American Numismatic Association (ANA), the world's largest nonprofit, educational organization chartered by Congress. ANA serves the needs of collectors of coins, paper money, tokens and medals.

Ed served for 20 years on the staff of ANA as executive vice president and editor of The Numismatist. It was during this tenure tat Ed visited the MSNA, a trip which eventually resulted in the A N A show in Baltimore in 1985. He served as one of the nine members of the Board of Governors and in 1989 was elected to Vice Presidency. Election to president in 1991 is the most recent of his successes.

Ed produces a weekly coin column "Coin Roundup" which is nationally syndicated by the Los Angeles Times,and monthly columns in The Numismatist and COINage. Among his books are "The Romance of Coin Collecting" and "The Other Side of the Coin".

His efforts in the hobby have earned him the ANA Medal of Merit,ANA's Farran Zerbe Memorial Award,Numismatic Literary Guild's Clemy Award,Krause Publications Numismatic Ambassador, the Maurice M. Gould Award for Best Syndicated Column and the Sandra Rae Mishler gold medal for original research.

SPEAKERS

LEON E. HENDRICKSON began his famous Silver Towne Coin in 1949 in Winchester, IN. Leon owned the Rainbow Restaurant and one corner of the restaurant contained a cigar case. That case was Silver Towne Coin.

In 1959 Leon took his coin business home and took over the entire basement. It was still a part time venture competing for his time with his restaurant, a skating rink, a rural mail route and farming.

In 1966 his business saw a $100,000 volume which paled completely beside the $30 million + in 1967. With all this growth he enlarged the basement in 1971. When the boom of 1979-1980 hit his business saw a volume as large as $10 million in one day and required over 40 employees. As a result he had built his multi-million dollar complex which opened on Mar.15, 1982.

Coins, gold, silver, jewelry sales,precious gems, refining, a laboratory, custom bars, specialty bars, commemorative medallions, smelting, refining, etc. etc. a tremendous variety which requires space: 12,200 in the original complex; a 1200 sq ft building nearby; a 4,000 ft addition to the original complex plus a refining factory in Jackson, Ohio (in partnership with John Engle). We can only wonder: "What Next?".

BURNETT ANDERSON

Burnett will speak at our awards breakfast & is no stranger to MSNA. He has given presentations at numerous affairs of ours in the past and he has attended just about every convention we have ever held.

Burnett established the Washington branch of Krause Publications over 10 years ago and has managed it every since. He currently produces articles for Numismatic News, World Coin News, Bank Note Reporter and COINS magazine.

His earlier career in journalism saw him spending several years on the daily papers of Minneapolis. He then spent five years in Europe as a foreign correspondent.

In 1952 he joined the Foreign Service and spent almost 30 years on assignments in Iran, Germany, Spain, France and Great Britain and as Deputy Director of the U.S. Information Service in D.C. He retired in 1979 with the rank of Career Minister.

Burnett's coin interests range from the US series,thru Sweden to all of Scandinavia.

Awards Breakfast

Our chairman for the ANA Convention of 1993, Bill Lenz, has requested that all members of the committee and any other interested individuals meet with him at 11:00 am, Saturday, June 20th at the Festival Hall. At this time it is expected that Ed Rochette will meet with the group also.

Contemporary circulating counterfeit of a $10.00 note of the Marine Bank of Baltimore, circa 1810-1812. The central vignette shows a sailing vessel entering the "Basin" in the Baltimore Harbor, with the signal tower on what is now Federal Hill in the background.

The Marine Bank of Baltimore operated as an Association for a short time in the 1809-1810 period until its corporate charter was approved by the General Assembly of Maryland on December 23, 1810 (Chapter 66, Acts of 1810). Notes in denominations of $5.00, $10.00, $20.00, $50.00 and $100.00 were initially issued, each generally similar in format to each note, but all showed some type of sailing vessel entering or leaving Baltimore's inner harbor. The Bank converted to and became The National Marine Bank of Baltimore in 1880 and ultimately, in 1954, was absorbed by the Fidelity-Baltimore National Bank & Trust Company.

None of the Bank's genuine original notes of this type are known to have survived. Thus, counterfeits such as the above provide us with our only accurate idea of the appearance of the original issues.

OUR MEMBER CLUBS REPORT

WESTERN MARYLAND COIN CLUB's Ted Foote started 1992 with a display in the South Cumberland library. Their club officers for 1992 were elected at their January meeting. Serving were to be:

Richard Yaeger - President
David Weir -Vice President
Larry Arbogast - Secretary
Al Helmick - Treasurer
George Waingold-Auctioneer

The members of the club were most unhappy to receive the word their new president died a couple of days before their spring show.
At their February meeting the group continued a tradition of holding a "Heart Auction" which resulted in a donation of $57. to the Heart Fund.
As another tradition the group met at the Silver Leaf Buffet in Braddock Square, on May 12th, to celebrate "Ladies Night".
Another member of the club, Herman Miller, also died early this year.
They also report their spring show was another successful event although they were a few dealers short of normal.

BALTIMORE COIN CLUB is seeing a change in the editing of their publication "The Coin Courier". Editor Mitchell, due to other committements, is resigning as editor effective with the May issue. Nathaniel Fick, assisted by Bob and Greg Ruby, will pick up the banner at that time. In addition the club has decided to reduce the publication from a monthly to a quarterly one. The club held it's annual banquet at the Thompson Sea Girt House on York Road. The guest speaker was the Curator of the Babe Ruth Museum who brought along memorabilia of the Babe and some items from the museum on the Ripkins. Included was a bat used by the Babe and a ball used the fall after the great fire. Club officers for the next year will be:

Bryce Doxzon - President
Bill Ayres -Vice President
Bill Stratemeyer-Secretary
Glen Burger - Treasurer

PRINCE GEORGE's COUNTY COIN CLUB's officers for 1992 will be:

Ed Rupp - President
Ted Rupp - 1st V P
Edith Hintz - 2nd V P

The Board of Directors of the Maryland State Numismatic Association decided to donate a set of our souvenir sheets to the Maryland Historical Society. Bill Ayres offered an almost complete set of bulletins of the MSNA also. Jim Boswell assembled the set of souvenir sheets. Bill Sacks and Pete Burris contacted Denwood Kelly who made arrangements for the MHS to accept the material.

CIVIL WAR TOKENS

by Nathaniel Fick

The Civil War gave rise to numerous forms of emergency money, unequaled in variety and ingenuity even to this day. Early in the year of 1862 all coins were gradually withdrawn from circulation. During the war, people feared the total devaluation of currency and started to hoard gold and silver. Finally, even the nation's copper cents disappeared from circulation. The result was total chaos, those conducting day to day business simply had no way to make change.

The first attempt to fill this void was with the use of ordinary U.S. postage stamps, however, these did not have a long enough circulating lifespan and their use as currency was in jeopardy. Next, small envelopes to hold the stamps were issued by merchants. These usually had some type of advertising on the back and gave the stamps some protection.

In 1862, John Gault patented a brass encasement for the stamps. They had a mica cover on the obverse so that the stamps, made by the Scoville Manufacturing Company in Waterbury, Conn., circulated widely. The one disadvantage to this form of emergency money was that they cost more than face value to issue because the cost of manufacture had to be added to the face value of the stamp.

Countless other forms of privately issued paper currency were later issued but because of their lack of intrinsic value and doubtful backing, in most cases, they did not meet with such wide acceptance.

Finally, in late 1862, the most popular and practical type of emergency money began circulating in the northeast and the midwest. These small copper tokens, generally of the same size and weight of the small bronze cents, met with immediate acceptance. Their use soon spread to other cities and states.

There were two major types of Civil War tokens or "copperheads" issued: the so-called patriotic tokens and store cards or tradesman's tokens. The patriotic series, mainly issued in and around New York, carried patriotic legends or symbols but no advertising. They were often designed to resemble the indian cent. The tradesmen's, or merchants, store cards carried the merchant's advertisment on one side and a patriotic slogan or rendition of the indian cent on the other.

Civil War tokens were issued until 1864 when an act of congress forbade the practice of issuing money in any form. During this period, over 25 million pieces were issued, amply filling the needs of commerce. The merchants were pleased with the arrangement because not only did the tokens carry their advertising but they cost only 23/100ths of a cent to produce.

The authoritative reference book on the subject of Civil War tokens had been Hetrich and Guttag's epic work CIVIL WAR TOKENS AND TRADESMEN'S CARDS, published in 1924. They listed over 7,000 different varieties but now there are over 11,000 varieties known to exist. At the present time the most comprehensive book on the subject are PATRIOTIC CIVIL WAR TOKENS and U. S. CIVIL WAR STORE CARD TOKENS by Melvin and George Fuld.

DEATH RAIL MEDALLION UNEARTHED

From Thailand comes news that a crude bronze medallion, cast to mark the completion of the Death Railway on October 17, 1943, has been unearthed by a farmer at the site of Hin Dat work camp.

Made at the railway workshops at Ban Pong, the medallion was one of the few presented to select Japanese at a special ceremony a week after the joining of the 415 km-long Burma-Sian line at Konkuita. It had cost the lives of tens of thousands of Allied prisoners of war, and the health of many more.

The Japanese medallion presented at Konkuita on October 25, 1943

The medallion was shown to a group of visiting Australians and New Zealanders, including Sir William Keys, a prominent official with the Australian War Memorial (AWM) and,after the consumption of much local rice whisky, passed into Aussie hands.

Lt. Col Terry Beaton, RAEME, working in the office of the Australian Defence Attache in Bangkok, writes to tell us the medallion will serve, not as a further reminder of suffering and sacrifice, but rather as an acknowledgement of an incredible feat of engineering under dire conditions.

Col Beaton spent two years exploring the original line of the Death Railway and is in the process of producing a guide to what he found. He hopes to have his draft ready for publication in the autumn.

The above article was extracted from the Feb 1992 issue of "Soldiers Magazine", published by the Ministry of Defense, U.K., and was sent to us by Jerry Remick.

1992 AUCTION PRIZES REALIZED reports the results of the top 65 rare coin auctions of 1991. Each coin is listed by category, date of sale, presiding auction company, condition and price. $60.00 plus $2.50 shipping (to U.S. addresses) from Krause Publications.

With the publication of David E. Schenkman's latest book, Merchant Tokens of Hard Rubber and Similar Compositions, another chapter in the history of nineteenth century exonumia has been written. Tokens struck in hard rubber, and those pieces manufactured in celluloid, fibre, and other non-metallic compositions from the 1860s to the early 1900s, comprise a series about which little is known and even less has been written. Now in one comprehensive volume, the culmination of 25 years' research, these facinating tokens have been cataloged.

Printed in large format with a high quality cloth binding, the 208 page book lists 773 tokens, issued by merchants from 34 states plus Washington, D.C. and Indian Territory. A comprehensive introductory section includes a wealth of information on the tokens and their manufacturers. The extensively annotated and profusely illustrated catalog is arranged in alphabetical order by city and state. There is a price guide and a complete index.

The cataloging of a series as diverse as this presents a formidable challenge. David E. Schenkman, a professional numismatist specializing in tokens and medals, is well qualified for the task. His prolific writings have been published in the Numismatist, TAMS Journal, Coin World, Numismatic News, The Copperhead Courier, Scrip Talk, and The Fare Box. A past president of both the Civil War Token Society and the Token and Medal Society, he is presently serving as editor of the TAMS Journal. He is the author of the following books, each the definitive work on its subject: Maryland Merchant Tokens; Virginia Tokens; Merchant Tokens of Washington, D.C.; Civil War Sutler Tokens; Explosive Control Tokens; and Bimetallic Trade Tokens of the United States.

Retail price of the book is $49.50. Merchant Tokens of Hard Rubber and Similar Compositions may be ordered from Jade House Publications, P.O. Box 265 (Dept. MS), Bryantown, MD 20617. Mail orders should include $2.25 shipping charges, and Maryland residents must add state sales tax. A specially bound edition, strictly limited to 25 numbered and signed copies, is also offered, subject to prior sale, for $85.00.

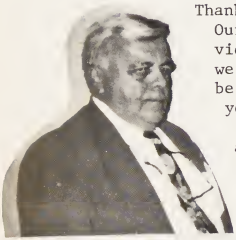
From President "Jack"



DEAR MEMBERS:

Thank you all of your help and support. Our coin show was a modest success. In view of the condition of the coin market we should be very satisfied. We should be able to finalize our plans for next years show in the near future.

The strength of the membership is always one of the most important items of consideration. We always need new members and we have to keep our current ones. Please pay your dues, if you have not done so and in any event, recruit a new member.

Our annual educational program has now been scheduled. We were planning to hold it in conjunction with the Associated Coin Club's show but circumstances made this impossible. MSNA's 1992 Fall Seminar will be held in conjunction with the Metropolitan Baltimore/Washington Show at the Convention Center: Saturday, 7 November 1992 at 3:00 pm and don't forget; the club with the most members in attendance will receive a monetary award to put in the club treasury.

As the year 1992 draws to an end we want to take this opportunity to wish you a happy holiday season and again: thanks for your support

Sincerely,

Jack

MANA RESULTS

MSNA did well at the MANA Convention in Myerstown, PA. Pete Burris won the Alex Kaptik Award and Jack Pryor was named MANA's "Man of the Year". A regular attendee at our conventions; Jerry Kochel received a Numismatic Ambassador presentation. Our congratulations to each of them.

We are advised that the ANA has selected Portland. Oregan for their 1998 Convention.

OUR MEMBER CLUBS REPORT

PRINCE GEORGE's COUNTY COIN CLUB meets at the James E. Duckworth Special Center; 11201 Evans Trail: Beltsville, Md on the 1st Tuesday of each month (2nd Tues in Nov 1992). A new box number (2612) is to be used in mailing items to them.

CATONSVILLE COIN CLUB meets the 2nd Wednesday of each month at the Emanuel United Methodist Church, 6517 Frederick Road. For the last few years the club has been holding it's shows at the Towson Quality Inn. Ken Kratz and Joe Fiedler are investigating the possibility of a Catonsville site. C C C also had to change their meeting date for one month (August's meeting was held on the 3rd Wednesday). Bryce Doxzon and Greg Ruby were in Orlando for the ANA and Phil Greenslet went to Canada for the convention of the CNA.
Bryce Doxzon was the recipient of an engraved gold medal at the ANA Convention for his first place winning exhibit "Silver & Bronze Official Inaugural Medals: A Lifetime Collection, 1961 to present".

We are advised that the Catoctin Coin Club is closing it/s books; Most unfortunate.

BOB COLCOCK has been collecting copies of the ANA NUMISMATIST and the APS AMERICAN PHILATELIST and has 25 years of back issues. He feels it is time to move them on to someone else. If that happens to be you; call him at 202-727-0152, by day or 301-577-3150 in the evening.

The HARFORD COIN HUSKERS report the loss of their long time member Elmer Lewis. Part of the price of having good friends is the pain when we lose them, as we all know. This is especially true of our hobby where we are losing the old guard faster then we are obtaining their replacements.

The WASHINGTON NUMISMATIC SOCIETY was organized on March 18, 1927 under the name of The Washington Coin Club. The name was changed on May 24, 1929, because the members thought the word Numismatic better defined the interests of their membership. This club meets at the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, 3526 Massachusetts Ave NW: Washington,D.C., on the 3rd Tuesday of each month, at 7:30. Interested parties can write to them at P.O. Box 4047, Silver Spring, MD, 20904.

INTERSTATE COIN CLUB: February 1961 & a group of numismatists from the Hagerstown region decided it was time to have their own club. In March of 1962 they held their first show at the Venice Ballroom; followed by another in September of the same year: thus beginning a tradition of semi annual shows they have followed every since. They long ago settled on the dates of the first weekend of March and the Labor Day weekend for their shows. The club has held meetings in five different locations:Uncle Tom's Trading Post, Western Enterprize Fire Hall, the Y.M.C.A. on North Potomac Street, The Washington County Library and St.John's Lutheran Church. Nine months out of each year they meet at 7:45 pm. In March they hold a spring banquet; in July their annual picnic and in December they hold a Christmas dinner, instead of regular meetings. One of their most noted events was the visit of Eva Adams, Director of the Mint, to their 1964 Spring Show.

THE 1992 SEMINAR OF THE MARYLAND STATE NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION IS to be held at the Convention Center; 3:00 p.m., Saturday, 7 Nov. Millard Hajek will address the group and their will be door prizes for those in attendance. In addition; the club with the most members there will receive a donation to their treasury.

LATIN AMERICAN TOKENS: A Guide Book and Catalog; 1700 - 1920. By Russ Rulau & Krause Publications. The Maryland collectors have the Pickers Checks; America has Civil War Tokens; the world has transportaion Tokens and now Central America has it's field of collecting. To me this book was a new revelation; I never had any idea such a vast field existed. Over 1200 photos and I didn't try to find out how many hundreds of tokens were not photographed. Many of these tokens were used in lieu of money as were those we are used to seeing in MD. We can all imagine the tremendous amount of work it takes to present any reference book but in the case of this one the amount was multiplied by the vast area involved and limited number of varieties from any one source had to have made this production a major project. If part of your collecting has lead you into this realm the book is available for $29.95 + $2.50 handling charges, from Krause Publications.
